

Field Staff Application

Thanks for your interest in becoming a part of the Rack Daddies Field Staff team! Our field staff is made up of dudes and gals all the way from Oklahoma to New York, and our main goal with this group is to just share the same love of the outdoors with our fellow outdoorsman. We are looking for folks who are willing to stay very active in this group and help grow the RD brand! Our main goal is to push our RD YouTube channel by sharing with your friends, family and socials, but also to push the RD apparel as well. Of course this comes with benefits for you too, we offer discounts for most of our sponsors and a big 30% off on anything RD online as well. If you film your hunts, there's a possibility we use your footage on the show as well too! Again though, I will always say the biggest part of this field staff is the friendships made. We have two lead field staff members who are in charge of the group, Kyle Heckert and Austin Piety, who will monitor the group and will be there to answer any questions! Hope to talk to ya'll soon!
